

Quality Policy

We at Ankush Speciality Ingredients Pvt. Ltd are in the business of supplying specialty ingredients to customers in chemicals, food & nutrition, and personal & home care segments.

We value our relationship with customers and all relevant interested parties and shall always strive to satisfy and exceed their needs and expectations. This shall be further strengthened by establishing, implementing and continually improving an ISO 9001- based Quality Management System (QMS) in alignment with our strategic objectives leading to business excellence.

We shall make sure that deliverables to our customers, as defined in our scope of QMS, are as per mutual agreement and we, through our experience and expertise, continue to add value to our customers' business. We shall also make sure that a risk-based approach is adopted in managing processes with a clear intent to maximize desirable outputs and minimize undesirable ones.

We shall constantly benchmark ourselves against best practices and foster a work environment of transparency, innovation and employee engagement. Our employees are our biggest asset, and we shall keep enhancing their capabilities & competence to meet newer challenges.

Our vision, mission and values will continue to be our guiding philosophy.
